If you leave or retire - Insurance coverage can be seamlessly transferred.

During an unpaid leave - you will receive information from Wagmo about continuing your insurance coverage. To maintain your insurance, you must pay Wagmo directly. If you choose not to continue payments, your insurance coverage will terminate. If you wish to have coverage when you return to work, you will need to re-enroll in insurance, which will be subject to standard underwriting guidelines and the applicable rate at that time. You will begin a new 12 month plan year upon re-enrollment and re rating.
