

Know your costs before you go

Avoid surprise bills by checking how much you may owe for your dental work. See the potential costs of covered services in your MyDentalBenefits account.

Look up estimated treatment prices in your MyDentalBenefits account.

Go to unitedconcordia.com and log in. If you don't have an account, click on Create an Account to get started.

After you log in, click on the Covered Services tab. On the next page, you can check the coverage or potential cost of dental services for each person in the family.

Next, click on the Cost button.

Look up the procedure using the search bar.

Or click on the + to see the list of procedures in each treatment category.

The expanded chart shows the amount you may owe out of pocket.

Cost information is provided as an estimate only and is not a guarantee of payment.

Talk with your dentist, too

If you need extensive dental care, ask your dentist for the procedure codes that'll be included in the entire visit. That way, you can get the most accurate idea of your total cost.

You can also request a Predetermination of Benefits. It's an estimate of what you'll owe, and confirmation that your service will be covered. Your dentist will submit the paperwork to us for you, and you'll be notified by mail.
